Starlight Bowl Summer Season Kicks Off Sunday

Season Opens with Bostyx and Country Nation

BURBANK, Calif. (July 12, 2013) – Sunday, July 14th marks the beginning of the summer season at Burbank's Starlight Bowl. The first of the series of five Sunday evening concerts will welcome Bostyx, a tribute to legendary rock bands Boston and Styx. The show kicks off at 6:30pm with Country Nation, a Los Angeles based group which pays tribute to both contemporary and classic country music artists. Tickets for the Starlight Bowl summer season events are $6 for children and seniors and $12.00 for adults.

The remainder of the 2013 schedule will feature artists such as Ozomatli, Moonwalker – A Reflection of Michael Jackson, Led Zepagain, Queen Nation and coming back to the Starlight Bowl for this summer's concert season, by popular demand, The Fab Four.

A performance by Journey tribute band Lights, originally scheduled for July 14th, has been cancelled by the band due to a health issue.

For more information on the Bowl including season tickets, the complete schedule of events, tickets sales and parking, please visit the Starlight Bowl's website, <http://www.StarlightBowl.com>.

About the Starlight Bowl: Nestled in the Verdugo Mountains, the Starlight Bowl is Burbank's premiere outdoor entertainment venue and has entertained generations of Southern California families. The Starlight Bowl's convenient location, great sight lines, grassy picnic area and comfortable seating are complemented by the high quality family entertainment presented throughout the summer.
